

Please do not let this become a law. It adds unnecessary cost to the price of a new vehicle and will not prevent stupid people from hurting themselves. If you are responsible enough to own and operate a car, you should be responsible enough to make sure that it is safe to operate.